STATUS INQUIRY

Applicant has received no correspondence from the Office in the above-referenced application since a telephone interview with the Examiner on September 17, 2001. During recent conversations with the Examiner about the application, Applicant learned that a Notice of Allowance had been issued in the application on September 25, 2001. However, to date, Applicant has not received this or any other correspondence from the Office pertaining to the application.

Applicant respectfully requests to be informed of the present status of the application and to receive copies of the correspondence previously sent by the Patent Office since September, 2001.

Respectfully submitted,
Thompson Coburn LLP
